

Friends of the Melton Botanic Garden invites you to the Monthly Meeting 7.30pm Wed 8 November 2023

Californian, Central and South American Plants – Stephen Ryan

One of the best-known plant experts, Stephen Ryan, is presenting on Californian, Central and South American plants. This is an especially timely presentation as we have recently commenced planting in the new Californian, Central and South American Garden. There will be some rare and unusual plants shown.

Stephen owns Dicksonia Rare Plants nursery at Mount Macedon. He is known for his role as a previous host of ABC Gardening Australia. He can be heard on ABC Radio Melbourne on Saturday mornings and the 3CR Gardening Show on Sunday mornings. He is also President of the Mt Macedon & District Horticultural Society and President of Plant Trust. Recently he has been delving into YouTube through the Horti-Culturalists channel. Stephen will bring plants to purchase at the meeting.

Raffle $1/ticket - we have several raffle prizes. Please bring along your real money.
